One day a young man on his journey home, came to the bank of a wide river. Without any bridge or boat in sight and not knowing how to swim, the young man was staring hopelessly at the great obstacle in front of him, he pondered for hours on just how to cross such a wide barrier. Just as he was about to give up hope to continue his journey, he saw a great teacher on the other side of the river. The young man yelled over to the teacher, "Oh wise one, can you tell me how to get to the other side of this river"?

The teacher pondered for a moment, looking up and down the river, and he yelled back, "My son, you are already on the other side!"
